IIMB foundation day on Friday

The Indian Institute of Management Bangalore will celebrate its 43rd foundation day on Friday, October 28, during which the annual Distinguished Alumni Awards will be presented. This year, the awardees are Ramesh Srinivasan, an alumnus of the PGP 1984 batch, who is currently the CEO of Ooyala Inc in California and Haragopal Mangipudi from the first batch the PGSEM programme in 2001, who is the CEO of finUNO, an intelligent financial assistant.

The Foundation Day Lecture will be by Dr Harish Hande, managing director of SELCO Solar Light, known for his pioneering work in rural energy service. The theme of his lecture will be ‘Social Inclusiveness and our Education System’. Each recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award receives a citation and will have their name engraved on the Wall of Fame at the institute. Professor Raghavan Srinivasan, director incharge, IIMB, will present a report on the institute’s achievements during the event.
