

Executive Post Graduate Programme in Management (EPGP): One-year fulltime MBA for experienced professionals

Parth Tiwari

Executive Post Graduate Programme in Management (EPGP)

Gold Medallist – First Rank Holder

The achievements of 29-year-old Parth during his course at IIMB include being featured in the Director's Merit List; he was consistently ranked among the top five out of 82 students. He was an elected member of the Student Academic Committee. His team was also among the top eight out of 154 teams globally to qualify for the final round in the Cornell EMI Corning Case Competition 2024.

About his IIMB learning experience, he says, "Every aspect of this meticulously planned programme, be it academics, extracurricular activities or peer interaction, has been valuable. Moreover, collaborating with highly talented peers from diverse backgrounds to solve new challenges has been rewarding. More than tangible achievements, EPGP and IIM Bangalore have instilled in me a spirit of continuous learning, preparing me well for a VUCA (Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous) world."

Sharing his future plans, he says, "I envision India as a self-sufficient global leader in technological innovation, particularly in aerospace and defense. My goal is to play a pivotal role in turning this vision into reality by working at the intersection of technology and business. By fostering an ecosystem that empowers millions and drives innovation, I aim to contribute to India's technological and strategic advancement on the global stage."

Parth hails from the town of Mungeli in Chhattisgarh. His father is a government school teacher and his mother, a homemaker.
