

N. S. Ramaswamy Pre-doctoral Fellowship (NSR Pre-doc)

Admission procedure for 2020 batch

About the Programme

The N. S. Ramaswamy Pre-doctoral Fellowship is a highly selective programme instituted with the aim to increase social diversity of management academia in India. It is a flexible one-year apprenticeship programme designed to help the selected pre-doctoral fellows successfully apply to doctoral programmes in management and allied disciplines.

Area of Specialization

The 2020-21 N. S. Ramaswamy Pre-doctoral Fellowship is available in the following disciplinary areas within management scholarship and research:

- Decision Sciences
- Economics & Social Sciences
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance & Accounting
- Information Systems
- Marketing
- Organizational Behavior & Human Resource Management
- Production & Operations Management
- Public Policy
- Strategy

Duration of the Programme

This is a one-year academic programme (June 2020 through May 2021).

Academic eligibility

- A Master's Degree (bachelor's degree obtained in 10+2+3 pattern, followed by a master's degree) or a 5 year Integrated Master's Degree (obtained after completing higher secondary schooling in 10+2 pattern) in any discipline, with a minimum of 50 percent* marks in the bachelor's as well as the master's degrees.

(OR)

- A professional qualification such as CA, ICWA, CS, with at least 50 percent* marks.

(OR)

- A 4-year/8-semesters bachelor's degree (10+2+4 pattern) with at least 50 percent* marks.

*The percentage of marks obtained by the candidate would be calculated based on the practice followed by the respective University/Institution. In case of grades / CGPA, the conversion to percentage of marks would be based on the procedure certified by the respective University/ institution. If a University/institution confirms that there is no scheme for converting CGPA into equivalent marks, the equivalence would be established by dividing the candidate's CGPA by the maximum possible CGPA and multiplying the result by 100. # Five percent marks relaxation is given to applicants from SC, ST and PwD categories; i.e., these applicants should have scored at least 50%, 45% and 55% respectively depending on the qualification that the candidate has acquired.

The above qualification should be from any of the Universities, or other educational institutions, incorporated by an act of the Parliament or State legislature in India; or declared to be deemed as a University under Section 3 of UGC Act, 1956, or, recognized by the Ministry of HRD, Government of India.

Candidates who are in the final year of their qualifying programmes, that would make them eligible, can also apply. Such candidates, if selected, will be allowed to join the programme provisionally only if they submit a certificate latest by June 8, 2020 from the Principal/ Head of the Department / Registrar or Director of the University / Institute (issued on or before June 8, 2020) stating that they have appeared for the examinations (including practical examinations) in all the subjects required for obtaining the Master's / Bachelor's degree / equivalent qualification. Their admission will be confirmed only when they submit the mark sheet and a certificate of having passed the Master's / Bachelor's degree / equivalent qualification referred to in the certificate issued by Principal / Registrar of their college / Institute. The deadline for submission of mark sheet and the Degree Certificate is December 31, 2020. Please note that all applications must meet the 50% eligibility norms. Non-fulfilment of these conditions will automatically result in the cancellation of the provisional admission.

Target Groups:

- Applicants belonging to SC, ST, or NC-OBC groups.
- Applicants belonging to PWD category (persons with disability as defined by the Government of India).
- Applicants belonging to religious minorities (as defined by the Government of India).
