Renu Chaubey

Executive Post Graduate Programme in Management (EPGP) 2023-2024

Gold Medallist – First Rank Holder

Renu Chaubey's achievements during her course at IIMB include being among the Top Five in the Dean's Merit List.

About her IIMB learning experience, she says, "As a seasoned professional with a decade of work experience, juggling the responsibilities of parenthood and adapting to hostel life, while pursuing my MBA, was an enriching journey. The programme's emphasis on practical learning and real-world applications resonated deeply with my prior experience, allowing me to seamlessly integrate academic knowledge with professional insights. Engaging with a diverse cohort of students and learning from renowned faculty further broadened my perspectives. The programme not only enriched my academic knowledge, but also cultivated my leadership skills through practical learning and collaborative projects. I am very confident that I would be able to leverage all the skills I acquired in the past year to have a successful and fulfilling career ahead."

She shares that her future plans revolve around leveraging her MBA education to contribute meaningfully to sectors that align with her passion and interests. "I have a deep interest in sectors such as sustainable energy, technology innovation and corporate strategy. In these fields, I aim to work on initiatives that address pressing global challenges, drive positive societal impact, and promote environmental sustainability."

Thirty-three year-old Renu's family includes her husband and two children.
