Velamuri Sai Yaswanth

Executive Post Graduate Programme in Management (EPGP) 2023-2024

Gold Medallist – Best All Round Performer

The achievements of Velamuri Sai Yaswanth, aged 27 years, while at IIMB include: sourcing 50 Comprehensive Projects from the alumni network fostering important alumni connections; spearheading the creation of NAVODAY – a lecture event for EPGP; representing EPGP in cricket and volleyball; leading the entrepreneurial venture ‘Propter’ as CTO and leveraging expertise in product development as well as ability to translate strategic vision to technological solutions, and being part of organizing product case competition during Business Conclave 2023.

Terming his IIMB learning experience as being transformative, he adds, “It facilitated my growth across various domains, including academics, athletics, cultural pursuits and networking with peers. The curriculum is crafted to foster comprehensive development. The rigorous schedule is geared towards equipping students with the skills and knowledge necessary to emerge as leaders in the corporate arena. The myriad opportunities, including engagement in live industrial projects, the freedom to select Electives aligned with our interests, and participation in diverse competitions and inter-IIM tournaments, are experiences which are exceptionally rewarding.”

About his future plans, he says that as a firm advocate for the transformative potential of technology in global advancement, he is keen to contribute to the development of technological products. “Drawing upon the managerial acumen honed during my tenure at IIMB, alongside my technical expertise, I aspire to utilize technology to meet evolving customer needs and problems. In the long term, I aspire to assume the role of C-suite Executive within esteemed organizations. In this capacity, I envisage spearheading the conceptualization of product visions, orchestrating strategic initiatives and nurturing emerging talent within the realm of product management.”
