

Winter Research Methodology Workshop 2025

1-6 December 2025

Overview

In recognition of the importance of research in today's academic world, the Research & Publications Office at Indian Institute of Management Bangalore (IIMB) will host the Winter Research Methodology Workshop 2025 from the 1st to 6th of December 2025, at the IIM Bangalore campus. The workshop would benefit academic researchers, specifically PhD students and early career faculty at management institutes and business schools, in their research and publication. The six-day workshop will be anchored by faculty of IIM Bangalore.

Content and Structure

The Workshop will consist of two tracks: Track 1 includes dedicated sessions on Qualitative Comparative Analysis and Network Analysis) and Track 2 includes dedicated sessions on Event Study Methodology, Applied Econometrics, and Game-Theoretic Modelling and Analysis. Both the tracks will comprise common sessions on qualitative and quantitative methods, experimental design, and meta-analysis.

The workshop will also feature a panel discussion with a focus on research and publication.
