

CENTRE FOR PUBLIC POLICY, INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT BANGALORE

Government of Karnataka (GoK) Partnership activities:

Sl. No	Partnership activities	Year
		2006-07	2007-08	2008-09
1	The CPP would undertake a set of research studies of special interest to the GoK. Some of this research would be the CPP's own initiative, and some at the request of GoK	1. Karnataka Development. Report chapters on growth, dynamics, infrastructure & industry	Framework for Analysis for Crime & Criminal Data for State Crime Records Bureau	Impact of Bhoomi Project
		2. KHDR on Gender		Reforms in Agricultural Marketing
2	The CPP would offer professional feedback in areas of its competence on specific policy/ management issues, if sought for	Routing decision for BMTC		Urban transport system
		Transport Data Analysis Method for Accidents		HOPCOMS
				Property Tax assessment system
3	The CPP would prepare occasional series of policy briefs on topics of interest to GoK	Most of the work being done by the CPP for GoK falls under this category	Most of the work being done by the CPP for GoK falls under this category	Most of the work being done by the CPP for GoK falls under this category
4	The CPP would organize a forum for discussion on policy issues in collaboration with GoK	A number of workshops and conferences were organized where GoK officers were invited	A number of workshops and conferences were organized where GoK officers were invited	A number of workshops and conferences were organized where GoK officers were invited
5	The CPP would conduct one short-term training programme and one policy workshop a year for GoK		1. Managing Change for Agricultural Sector	Orientation Programme for the first-time MLAs and MLCs
			2. Health Delivery: Change Agenda & Change Management for Sr. Medical Officers
6	The CPP would provide research facilities (library, computer, faculty advice) for one civil servant - GoK as Visiting Research Fellow	GoK has not nominated any officers	Mr Vijayakumar P Revadi as VRF on the topic 'Special Economic Zones in Karnataka - Emerging Policy Issues'. He has submitted the report	GoK had not nominated any officers
7	IIMB Library will strengthen its collection of materials relevant to public policy and management in Karnataka, and extend institutional membership to IIMB library to Senior IAS Officers	Library acquisition continued. Spent approx Rs.11,00,000	Library Acquisition continuing quite well. Number of Books/CDs/VCDs/DVDs/Micro Documents acquired in 2006-07 is 247; in 2007-08 it was 581; and in 2008-09 (till 25 March) it was 393. Currently, 39 CPP related journals are subscribed
		Five library cards have been given to GoK officers
8	The CPP would organize open public seminars and talks by distinguished speakers	The CPP organized many public seminars and talks by distinguished speakers where GoK officers were invited. List attached	The CPP organized many public seminars and talks by distinguished speakers where GoK officers were invited	The CPP organized many public seminars and talks by distinguished speakers where GoK officers were invited
9	IIMB will sponsor six officers for a year to IIMB's EEPs of 1- or 2-week duration	The EDP calendar was sent to DPAR (AR) on 19 May 2006, with a request to nominate officers for the programmes	13 officers were deputed and eight attended various Executive Education programmes	A list of Executive Education programmes was sent, but no officer was deputed